The employees of the Honolulu Iron Works will give a reception to Alexander Young on Saturday.

The Board of Health held a special meeting yesterday in regard to the fumigation of the Lebanon freight.

G. H. Burnside, who has resided in Honolulu for some time doing surveying work, is booked to leave by the Mariposa.

The third annual report of the Hawaiian Historical Society has been issued and contains much interesting reading matter.

The ladies of the Pacific Club played tennis yesterday afternoon to the strains of the band which played in the palace grounds.

It is reported that the election of Mr. T. R. Walker as synodman of the second congregation of the Anglican Church will be contested.

The Kilohana Art League will be opened to-night for the first time to specially invited friends and members. Allen Hutchinson's Kalakaua bust in bronze will be on exhibition.

W. W. Dimond is opening his fine selection of Christmas goods in the Foster building on Fort street. The goods are personally selected and are the choicest ever imported here.

The teams of the H. A. A. C. which will meet each other in a game of football on Thanksgiving Day are training in earnest now, and the game will be the best ever played in Honolulu.

Thomas Lindsay, the well-known jeweler whose health has been impaired for sometime, intends to sell out his stock at reduced prices. A good chance for people looking for Christmas presents.

A new design for the Great Seal has been proposed. In the centre is Mr. Young, the agent for Seattle beer, with that celebrated beverage on tap all around him. The only difficulty is that in order to get at it must be unsealed.

Manager Dillingham of the O. R. & L. Co. took Mr. Yatman and a party of friends to Waianae yesterday in a special car. Lunch was served at Waianae, and on the return trip the party remained for several hours at the Peninsula returning to town about 5 p. m.

The H. A. A. C. decided last evening to decline the invitation of the Kamehameha boys to join in their athletic sports on Founder's Day, the 19th of December. Founder's Day falls on a Thursday, and most of the H. A. A. C. boys cannot get away from work on that day.

Plain Facts.—If you are looking for Stamped Goods, go to N. S. Sachs, there you will find the largest and most complete assortment; the Painted Art Denim Cushion Covers are new, you will find them there, as well as Pretty Tinted Covers. Also Wash Silk and Linen Floss in all colors.

The Flower Mission.

The ladies of the Hospital Flower Mission will hold their promised entertainment at Independent Hall on Tuesday the 26th inst. instead of at the residence of Mrs. F. M. Swanzy, who owing to sickness in her family finds it impossible to have the fair at her home. The entertainment promises to be a most enjoyable affair and a large audience is expected. The object is most worthy, and the ladies having charge of the entertainment will spare no effort to make a success.

A Cuban Here

Among the passengers by the Mariposa was Mr. A. P. Lacazette of Habana, Cuba. The gentleman represents the well-known tobacco firm of Prudencio Rabell, whose cigars under the brands of "La Legitimidad," "La Honradez," and "La Hoidalguia," are world renowned. Mr. Lacazette also represents Pino, Villamil & Co., the manufacturer of the popular "La Africana."

When asked in regard to Cuban matters, Mr. Lacazette, who is a genial, affable gentleman, expressed himself as opposed to the establishment of an independent republic for Cuba. He claimed that these views were shared in by the majority of those who have anything at stake in the islands. He firmly believed that a compromise would eventually be arrived at which would grant Cuba home rule under Spanish supremacy after the model of Australia and Canada. The experience of the South American republican form of government.

Mr. Lacazette will remain here for some times attending to the business of the houses represented by him.
